The everlasting arms

Albert B. Simpson, 1843-1919

A musical score for two voices (Soprano and Bass) and piano. The score consists of four staves of music. The top two staves are for the voices, and the bottom two staves are for the piano. The music is in common time. Measure numbers 5, 10, 15, 20, and 25 are indicated above the staves. The vocal parts are mostly eighth-note patterns, while the piano part features sustained notes and chords.

Art thou sunk in depths of sorrow
Where no arm can reach so low?
There is One whose arms almighty
Reach beyond thy deepest woe.
God th' Eternal is thy refuge,
Let it still thy wild alarms;
Underneath thy deepest sorrow,
Are the everlasting arms.

Other arms grow faint and weary,
These can never faint, nor fail;
Others reach our mounts of blessing,
These our lowest loneliest vale.
O that all might know His friendship!
O that all might see His charms!
O that all might have beneath them
Jesus' everlasting arms.

Refrain

*Underneath thee, underneath thee,
Are the everlasting arms,
Everlasting, everlasting,
Are the everlasting arms.*

Refrain

Underneath us, O how easy;
We have not to mount on high,
But to sink into His fulness,
And in trustful weakness lie.
And we find our humbling failures
Save us from the strength that harms!
We may fail, but underneath us
Are the everlasting arms.

Art thou sunk in depths of sorrow

Comfort in Trials — By the Lord's Arms

(Guitar)

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff is for the guitar, indicated by a treble clef and a 'G7' chord symbol. The middle staff is for the vocal part, with lyrics in a standard staff notation. The bottom staff is also for the vocal part, with lyrics in a standard staff notation. The lyrics are as follows:

1. Art thou sunk in depths of sor - row Where no arm can reach so low? There is One whose arms al - might - y Reach be - yond thy deep - est
woe. God th'E - ter - nal is thy re - fuge, Let it still thy wild a - arms; Un - der -neath thy deep - est sor - row, Are the ev - er - last - ing arms. (C) Un - der -neath thee, un - der -neath thee, Are the ev - er - last - ing arms, Ev - er - last - ing, ev - er - last - ing, Are the ev - er - last - ing arms.

A 'Chorus' section begins at measure 16, with the lyrics:

Chorus: Am G7
arms. (C) Un - der -neath thee, un - der -neath thee, Are the ev - er - last - ing
arms, Ev - er - last - ing, ev - er - last - ing, Are the ev - er - last - ing arms.

2. Other arms grow faint and weary,
These can never faint, nor fail;
Others reach our mounts of blessing,
These our lowest loneliest vale.
O that all might know His friendship!
O that all might see His charms!
O that all might have beneath them
Jesus' everlasting arms.

3. Underneath us, O how easy;
We have not to mount on high,
But to sink into His fulness,
And in trustful weakness lie.
And we find our humbling failures
Save us from the strength that harms!
We may fail, but underneath us
Are the everlasting arms.

4. Arms of Jesus! fold me closer,
To Thy strong and loving breast,
Till my spirit on Thy bosom
Finds its everlasting rest;
And when time's last sands are sinking,
Shield my heart from all alarms,
Softly whispering, "Underneath thee,
Are the everlasting arms."
